

YARNING ABOUT FIRST NATIONS RESEARCH: NAIDOC WEEK 2023 SYMPOSIUM

Tuesday 4 July 2023, 9am-4pm

Curtin University, Bentley Campus - Building 500 Exhibition Space (Level 1)

9.00AM – 9.30AM REGISTRATION

9.30am Welcome to Country Smoking Ceremony
Noongar Elders Vivienne and Mort Hansen

9.45am SYMPOSIUM OPENING
Professor Fiona Stanley

9.55am CULTURAL PRESENTATION

SESSION 1 RESEARCH

10.10am An Exploration If Australian Policies and Acts Are the Only Disruptions That Disempower Local Aboriginal Men
Max Jackson

10.20am Physical Activity with Older Aboriginal People of the South West of WA
Margaret Gidgup

10.30am 'Voice of the Other:' A Nyoongar Woman's Story
Liz Hayden

10.40am Connecting Elders and Young People in the Research Space
Dr Michelle Webb

10.55AM – 11.25AM MORNING TEA

SESSION 2 RESEARCH

11.30am Australian Indigenous Incarceration: Positive Outcomes Programs That Reduce Recidivism and Decrease (Indigenous) Representation Within the Justice System
Robert Shaw

11.45am Moombaki Cultural Learnings – The Value of AIEOs
Cheryl Kickett-Tucker and Sophie Karangaroa

12.00pm Nguny Moort, Boodja, Kaartdij, Koora, Yeyi, Boordawan (My Family, Country, Culture, of Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow)
Nick Abraham

12.10pm I CaRe WA– Examining the Voices of Kinship Carers
Dr Jocelyn Jones

12.25pm PANEL QUESTION & ANSWER

12.45PM – 1.35PM LUNCH

SESSION 3 YARNING CIRCLES

1.40pm What Is a Yarning Circle? How Do I Participate?
Dr Carol Dowling

2.00pm YARNING CIRCLES
Dr Carol Dowling and Dr Jocelyn Jones

2.40PM – 3.10PM AFTERNOON TEA

SESSION 4 SYMPOSIUM CLOSING – JOCELYN JONES & FRED YASSO

3.15pm PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARDS – SYMPOSIUM PRESENTATIONS

3.25pm CLOSING REMARKS

3.45pm SYMPOSIUM CLOSE

Hosted by The National Drug Research Institute and The Centre for Aboriginal Studies